

ATTITUDES TOWARDS CLOUD

Across Central and Local Government and the NHS

To what extent has Cloud been adopted so far within Central and Local Government, and the NHS?

26%

have already moved to cloud

41%

stated that cloud has been adopted only in certain departments

51%

believe that between 11-50% of services will be delivered via the cloud in the next 12 months

28%

were at the design and implementation stage

24%

reported that it had been implemented organisation-wide

What is important to organisations making use of cloud technology, and what do they want to avoid?

56%

concerned with risks to security and privacy

65%

wanted value for money

50%

concerned with lack of skills to run or migrate IT internally

As organisations seek to embrace Cloud further, what are the most important aspects they are considering?

69%

believe that accessing data from any location is a benefit of cloud

89%

stated the availability of support 24/7 was either 'Important' or 'Very Important'

56%

have considered G-Cloud

88%

Stated that the ability of a solution to free-up staff to focus more on business-critical tasks is also a major factor